

TURKEY 2014

Schatz Blackrose Storytelling and Arts Tour

'Morgan's storytelling visit was a celebration of the diversity of world stories and also the connections between oral and written literature. Interspersing rhymes, songs and music with the stories not only created an enjoyable and unique listening experience for the children, it promoted active participation in her performances. There was very positive feedback from teachers and students and this was reflected in the children's questions and borrowing patterns.'

About Morgan

International storyteller, author and musician, Morgan Schatz Blackrose will be visiting International schools in TURKEY during OCTOBER 2014. With 26 years performing experience to a diverse range of audiences, throughout the world, Morgan divides her time between writing, teaching storytelling to educators, presenting community literacy projects and performing to students of all ages. She welcomes suggestions from teachers to address specific curriculum outcomes in her concerts or celebrate Bookweek, United Nations or Environment Days. Morgan's extensive repertoire allows her to draw on traditional world tales and present them in an entertaining format. An accomplished musician, Morgan's concerts are both visually and aurally exciting. The author of five storytelling handbooks, two children's mystery novels, Morgan can tailor Professional Development workshops to your school's needs. In collaboration with her husband, artist and photographer Roman Schatz, she also offers storytelling-based arts projects that explore the concept of identity through the study and creation of contemporary art. Free storytelling resources are available to download from their website.

Morgan and her husband, Visual Artist Roman Schatz, have conducted storytelling based arts residencies in South Korea: Hyundai Foreign School Ulsan and International School of Okpo Belgium: IS Brussels Turkey: ENKA Schools, Istanbul China: Yew Chung IS of Qingdao. Residencies vary from 1 - 5 days and are tailored to each school's budget and specific needs. All projects are oral literature based. Examples of projects include textile sculptures, musical and dramatic performances and book - making. Literacy components are integral to the production and presentation of each project and a philosophy of inclusion and internationalism underpins the work.

PD Workshops for EC and Elementary Teachers

Morgan is an exponent of oral literature as a key tool in the elevation of children's self esteem, communication skills and literacy acquisition. Her storytelling handbooks are suitable as teaching resources for Primary School and Early Childhood teachers. They are tailored to the specific requirements of teachers and focus on teaching across the curriculum, through the medium of raps, rhymes, songs and stories. PD can take the form of one hour seminars through to day long workshops, according to the preferences of the school.
